The Projected National Encampment

in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia.

Unionists Offended by the Appearance of the Letters "C. S. A." and Soldiers in Confederate Uniforms in Highly-Colored Lithographs—Philadelphia Militia Refuse to Participate in the Affair.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—Everybody who has taken any interest in the subject has known that the project of a National encampment in Fairmount Park, beginning June 20, has been coolly received by the National Guardmen of this city, and the local brigade declined to participate. The reason given was that a successful camp could not be held in so large a city because the grounds would be overrun with visitors. The reason was no doubt valid in the minds of the local military, but developments made within the last day or two prove that it was not the only reason. The project to have the encampment originated with Lieutenant Underwood of Kentucky, and is being managed by him, with the assistance of his cousin, Col. H. L. Underwood, whose headquarters are at the Continental Hotel. Within five days Colonel Underwood has received from a number of citizens of various States the money to make the encampment a success should be provided. Within a day or two Colonel Underwood has posted, in conspicuous places about the city, some very handsome lithographs, which have given great offense to some people. A prominent Union street banker, who was one of the guarantors on June 1 place of business yesterday morning, saw one of these lithographs in a Chestnut street window, and at once sent word to Colonel Underwood to strike off his name from the guarantee. Colonel Underwood immediately called on the banker, who in polite but emphatic terms told him the distinguished Kentuckian that whoever had issued the lithographs representing the proposed encampment was a traitor to the Union. The lithograph represents a city and country scene, and is a very fine drawing in the same line and saluting a Union and Confederate General. The lithograph is being taken up by the city and county authorities. The letters "C. S. A." are on the back of the lithographs. "I am glad," said the banker to Colonel Underwood, "to do my part in welcoming men of the South to the city, but I will have no part in welcoming men with the badge of the rebellion upon their breasts. They might as well come carrying the rebel flag. We have rebellion now just as much as we had it twenty years ago. We cordially forgive all penitents, but those who have not repented we have not forgiven."

Colonel Underwood expressed his regret that the lithographs had been posted and said that he would stop their further issue. But the banker insisted that his name should be stricken from the guarantee. The facts of the interview soon spread through the city and created a good deal of talk. Many coincided with the views of the banker, and the city authorities are now taking steps to stop the further issue of the lithographs. The National Guard of Pennsylvania, said that the National encampment was a very serious matter, and that he did not believe that the gray uniforms were placed on the advertising posters with any design motive. Colonel Theodore D. Waterman, commanding the First Regiment, N. Y. 4th, said: "I do not approve of this thing."

One of them was sent up to the army and I saw it there. Of course, our brigade will not be in the show, so it will not make much difference to us, but I think it is a mistake to print the poster with the "C. S. A." on it. I heard that the Southern militia carried nothing but the Stars and Stripes. Rifles—Cat, with Cartridges, $8; Winchester, $18 50; Stevens, $16. Fishing Tackle—8-jointed Calcutta Rod, 60c; Keel, 50c. League Base Ball $1. Mask, $1 50; "Diamond" Ash Bat, 25c. Sea Grass Hammock, $1 50; Cotton Hammock, $1; Hammock Ropes, 25c. Macramé Cord, in balls, assorted colors, per ball, 10c; per pound, 40c.

QUICK MEAL

CASOLINE STOVES

Will Bake, Broil, Wash, Iron, Boil, Simmer, Roast and Toast much quicker and better than any coal or wood cook stoves. The distinctive feature of the "Quick Meal," the "taking point," which gives it the advantage of all other stoves is the simplicity and ease with which it can be opened, closed and regulated. There are no thumb-screws to turn to burn the fingers with, and to confuse people. The patent lever-valve is a "dead open and shut." When the little knob is pushed over to the word "Open" it is open, and when it is pushed to the word "Closed" it is closed, and no mistake. That is all there is to it. No one can use it wrong.

Our patent "Safety Tank" attachment necessitates the extinction of every light before it can be filled with a fresh supply of Gasoline.

was fitted out, left no doubt in the mind of the commander of the Alliance but that she was bound on some illegal errand. But whether she was fitted out as an insurgent vessel merely, or as a pirate, it was impossible for him to decide. The prize was taken into Aspinwall and the crew and the armed men were handed over to the authorities. The brigantine left Aspinwall May 12. The prize is an old vessel, having been originally built at Wadsworth, Maine, in 1852. She was rebuilt in 1878 and measures 215 tons.
